Frequently Asked Questions

Do I have to be wealthy to leave a gift?

Not at all. Every gift matters to us, whether it is a small percentage of what is left over, a fixed cash sum, or a specific item. Every pound helps secure our future.

Can I look after my family first?

Absolutely. We completely understand that your loved ones come first. Many supporters choose to leave a residuary gift, which means we only receive a percentage share after all costs, debts, and gifts to your family have been settled.

Do I need to write a whole new Will?

Usually, no. If you already have a Will, your solicitor can easily add a short amendment called a codicil to include your gift to us.

Can I choose exactly how my money is spent?

We kindly ask that you leave gifts for our general charitable purposes. This gives us the flexibility to use your money wherever the need is greatest at the time the gift is received.
